

David Faye Named a “CEO Visionary” by Los Angeles Times for 2nd Consecutive Year

Named a "CEO Visionary" for the second year in a row, David Faye is a lifelong entrepreneur with broad experience in building businesses and helping businesses grow.

CALABASAS, Calif. (PRWEB) August 04, 2023 -- David Faye, CEO and founder of Faye, has been honored for the second time in the Los Angeles Times B2B Publishing C-Suite Magazine as one of Los Angeles County's "CEO Visionaries." This prestigious recognition highlights his exceptional leadership and commitment to driving innovation in the industry.

Since starting Faye in late 2009, David's direction has propelled the company to unprecedented heights, achieving steady growth and securing a place on the Inc. 5000 for nine consecutive years. With a strong global presence and a dedicated team of 120 employees across the US, Canada, Europe, and South America, Faye serves clients in over 25 countries.

Under David's leadership, Faye has completed numerous strategic acquisitions and established partnerships with leading global brands. They were recognized as the 2023 SugarCRM President's Club Partner of the Year and the 2022 North America Zendesk GTM Partner of the Year.

"I am deeply honored to receive this award, which truly reflects the dedication and talent of our team, our unwavering values, and the incredible support of our partners," said David Faye, "My heartfelt congratulations to all the other visionary leaders driving their organizations forward."

"I am immensely proud of David for being recognized as a "CEO Visionary" for the second consecutive year," said Jason Green, President at Faye. "His remarkable strategic vision has not only driven our organization's growth but has also enabled us to forge meaningful partnerships and deliver exceptional results to our clients. David's leadership inspires our team every day, and his commitment to our company culture and values sets the foundation for our continued success. This award is a testament to David's dedication and the collective efforts of our entire team at Faye."
